Citizen Advocacy of Washington
County Announces

Wal-Mart West Bend Supercenter Investment in Countywide Matching Program

West Bend Wal-Mart Supercenter's Leigh Sanderson, (left), presents Mark Brunner, Citizen Advocacy of Washington County's Executive Director with a $1,500 check to assist in the continuing support of the Citizen Advocacy matching program in Washington County.

Citizen Advocacy of Washington County has received a $1,500.00, CA400, Community Sponsorship investment from Wal-Mart's West Bend Supercenter, to assist in the continued development of the CA matching program in Washington County. Wal-Mart's investment will help us to expand the effort to increase the number of matches in Washington County in 2008.

Citizen Advocacy of Washington County is a non-profit program, headquartered in West Bend, WI. We have been advocating for citizens with developmental disabilities for thirty years throughout Washington County providing opportunities for supportive relationships between community members and citizens with developmental disabilities.
